4. COMMITTEE MEMBER COMMENTS ON ANY ITEM NOT ON TODAY'S AGENDA
 - Doug asked Brian if there was a possible assembly of a committee for Valley Center. Brian added that he would report on this in the Department Report. Doug mentioned that Encinitas dedicated a new park called Olympus Park in Leucadia. Doug also mentioned that he came across an article in the newspaper regarding the state changing the guidelines on the use of masks.
 - Rob reported back to the committee on the Mission Trails Task Force meeting that took place on May 4th. He added that there was a discussion on a possible memorial to build a bridge over the river. The CAC ended up supporting the recommendation on moving forward to add a non-vehicular bridge. Rob will keep the committee updated on the status.
 - Paul asked if there was money available for federal trails. Brian added that the County keeps a close eye on the federal funding and there are certain projects being considered. Paul also asked about the Native Americans possibly buying land and asked if that would affect Mission Trails and asked Rob looking for input. Rob responded that the tribal community is represented on the San Diego River Task Force and it's important to Supervisor Fletcher to include their voice and participation.
 - Mike asked about the opening of the campground at the Tijuana River Valley. Brian was in attendance.

5. PLDO & CSA FUND BALANCE REPORTS

- Reports were distributed prior to the meeting via e-mail.
- Brian reported an error on the dates on the heading of the PLDO report and added that this will be corrected. He also added that the forecast came in for next year and is based on predicted housing stats. The budget forecast beginning July 1st is $1.1 million dollars in PLDO revenue that will come in.
- Brian reported that DPR will be adding two new CSA's one being Meadowood in Fallbrook and second, Valley Center that was transferred to the County.

6. DEPARTMENT REPORT – Brian Albright, Director

- Brian reported on the opening of TJRV campground and on the Greg Cox Bike Park.
- He also reported with DPR adding Valley Center, there is an advisory committee being created and the County will consider appointing the previous 5 committee members.
- Brian reported that there are two board letters going forward on May 19th DPR will be advertising an award for construction on a new volunteer pad at El Monte and Old Ironsides parks.
- Brian also made the committee aware that on May 26th and 27th Budget hearing will take place and start at 9am.
