WATERFRONT PARK RULES & REGULATIONS

E. SPEECH, VENDING AND COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES:

- E-1 No commercial transactions, selling, vending or advertising without a permit, as described in County Regulatory Code sec. 41.136.
- E-2 Non-commercial speech and non-commercial expressive conduct other than vending (see D-3 below) is allowed anywhere in the park as long as it does not impede or obstruct pedestrian or vehicular traffic, cause congestion, prevent the use of or access to any building, facility or park feature in the manner for which it was designed and intended, pose a potential danger to public health and safety, or violate the prohibition against begging or soliciting as described in Penal Code section 647(c).
- If the non-commercial speech or other expressive conduct does impede or obstruct pedestrian or vehicular traffic, and/or cause congestion, prevent the use of or access to any building, facility or park feature in the manner for which it was designed and intended, the persons engaging in such activity will be given the choice of other available areas within the park in which to conduct the activity.
- E-3 The vending of inherently communicative items with no more than nominal utility apart from communication is allowed.
- Although an item may have some expressive purpose, it will be deemed to have more than nominal utility apart from its communication if it has a common and dominant non-expressive purpose. Examples include, but are not limited to housewares, appliances, clothing, sunglasses, oils, incense, perfume, lotions, candles, jewelry, toys, and stuffed animals.
- E-4 Sound amplification – A permit is required for sound amplification devices or equipment that exceeds 60 decibels 25 feet from the source. The permit issued for the use of sound amplification may designate any area of the park as the permitted location for the use of the sound amplification equipment and the maximum decibel limit allowed by the permit.
